

THE OLD

SCHOOL TIE...

PACIFIC DOESN'T HAVE AN "OLD SCHOOL TIE",
of course . . . we've been content to leave that to the British. But the symbolic "school tie" that Pacific has with its former students is a strong one. We don't all wear the same neckgear, but we are bound together by some attitudes towards life, some goals, and possibly some erudition strengthened in us by our years at Pacific . . . among these is our desire that other generations may have some of the same benefits we found there.

TIES COME WITH VARIOUS PRICE TAGS. Countess Mara has some dandies for $20. We've seen nice ones at Penney's for $2.50. We know a Goodwill Store that has a good selection for a buck. Where do you buy yours?

IF EVERY PACIFIC ALUMNUS sent us the price of a tie or two or three, we could really give a lift to our annual Alumni Association scholarship program. How about sharing in this program again this year, showing that you recognize your "Old School Tie?" (If this has been One of Those Years, and you haven't a speck of cash — what the heck, wrap up an old necktie and send it to us.) The point is that we want this to be the year we hear from everybody. Late this year Pacific will go to the big-money foundations for the Library Drive — more on that later — and the first question they ask is "What percent of Pacific Alumni contribute to the school?" Your gift will count!

GET IT OFF YOUR CHEST, HUH?
