Re: Estate of Ernest A. Kuck

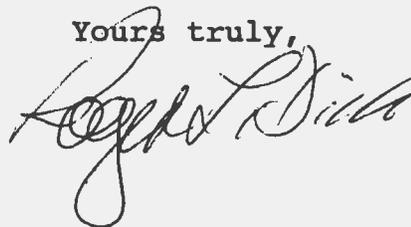

Dear Paul:

I am enclosing 13 photographs of the Kuck collectible firearms. These are photographs that were taken by the person cataloging the various collectible items. The numbers correspond to the numbers on the inventory sheet for the firearms I previously sent to you. In the event it has been misplaced, I am enclosing another inventory sheet of the firearms. There are three photographs of hand guns, number 180, number 181 and number 182, that don't appear on the list for some reason. One of the hand guns just mentioned appears to be a revolver.

These are the photographs that Vic Atiyeh requested. Would you show these to Mr. Atiyeh as soon as you can and find out his general opinion as to value. I would also like to know if he would want to make a personal inspection of the firearms. The person in charge of cataloging these items would like the photographs back after Mr. Atiyeh is through looking at them.

Please let me hear from you as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

Re: 2261100 Ernest A. Kuck, deceased

Dear Governor Atiyeh:

As a follow-up to our recent telephone conversation regarding the valuation of several collectible firearms, we are enclosing 13 photographs provided by Mr. Roger Dick. Also enclosed is a copy of Mr. Dicks letter to us of November 9, 1994, and a copy of the inventory sheet.

We would appreciate your reviewing the photographs and responding to Mr. Dicks request. I will be on vacation until November 22. If you wish to respond prior to that time, please send your response to either my assistant, Stuart Allen, or directly to Mr. Dick.

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter.

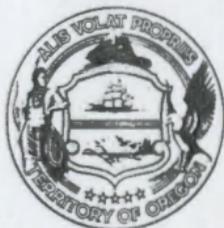

Very truly yours,

P.T. Akre

PAUL ———

AS I MENTIONED ON THE PHONE, APPRAISAL IS A PRETTY SUBJECTIVE EXERCISE, ESPECIALLY NOT BEING IN THE PRESENCE OF THE GUNS.

AN INCREASE IN MY VALUATION WOULD NOT BE UNREASONABLE BUT SHOULD NOT BE VERY MUCH OVER $18,000.
