*A special note for those who remember
Benny the Badger, Herrick Hall, or a conference in Bates House . . .*

A lot has changed at Pacific.

There are new programs. New faculty.
New classrooms and offices.

But, as much as your university has changed,
. . . look again.

Think how it was when you were in school.

It's not much different today.

Sororities and fraternities are active in campus life.

McCready Field shakes on Saturdays to the sound of tackles and cheers.

There's laughter and tears on the Warner Hall stage.

Worried brows and late nights before final exams.

There are also more than a thousand young men and women —
men and women with hopes and dreams just like yours.

Men and women who are facing challenges in classrooms, clinics, playing fields, and social activities.

Men and women who, like you, will take the lessons of the Pacific experience out into the community and into their lives.

That's why we need your help.

Your gift helps those young men and women take advantage of Pacific University. It purchases athletic equipment, microcomputers, and library books. It keeps our science labs and health clinics up to date.

Best of all, it keeps Pacific alive for students — today and tomorrow.

Pacific University . . . the more it changes, the more it stays the same.
