Requires Governor to recommend biennial maximum general obligation bonding level. Requires Governor to allocate maximum bonding level among programs financed by bonds. Requires Governor to submit recommendation and Governor's allocation to Legislative Assembly with Governor's budget. Requires Legislative Assembly to determine maximum bonding level for each program for each fiscal year.

Requires state agency authorized to issue general obligation bonds to report to Governor biennially on agency plans for issuing bonded indebtedness.

Sets amounts allocated for general obligation bonds that may be issued during the 1981-1983 biennium. Sets total maximum for all state agencies at $1,898,200,000.

Allows Emergency Board to modify authorized bond issuance amounts within program designation[,] and between program designation. [or as to the total] Prohibits Emergency Board from exceeding amount of general obligation bonds authorized by Legislative Assembly for the biennium.

Exempts refunding bonds from provisions of Act.

Prohibits interest rate increase above 6.9 percent for veterans' loans granted on or after May 27, 1971, with interest rate originally set at 5.9 percent. Prohibits interest rate increase above 8.2 percent for veterans' loans granted after January 1, 1981, with original rate of 7.2 percent. Prohibits interest rate increase above 8.9 percent for veterans' loans, for acquisition of a mobile home or house boat, granted after May 27, 1971, with original rate of 7.9 percent. Allows Director of Veterans' Affairs to fix variable interest rates at rate greater than specified limits to extent necessary to avoid invoking certain constitutional provisions.

Requires director to reserve amount of requested loan in Oregon War Veterans' Fund before making a loan commitment.

Declares emergency, effective July 1, 1981.
