

Cyrus H. Walker, in a letter in the Albany Democrat, complains as follows: "I have been waiting some days hoping to see some public acknowledgement from Brownsville, regarding our excursion from this city to the Pioneers' Picnic on the 18th inst., a success notwithstanding lowering clouds and weeping skies; but so far have been disappointed." Mr. Walker is fast becoming a grumbler. Had he taken the time to look up a copy of THE TIMES before publishing his "growl" he would have found that due acknowledgment of the visit had been made. While Brownsville appreciates the visit of the Albany people to a wholly Linn County affair—the Linn County Pioneers' Reunion—she does not appreciate Mr. Walker's "rush into print" in this matter. THE TIMES suggests that Mr. Walker make a note of the number of Brownsville people who attend Albany's celebration tomorrow, then, doubtless, he will feel much better.
