Governor Atiyeh should be arriving soon in the Middle East. He left New York's Kennedy Airport last night on a trip that will take him to Syria, Isreal, Saudi Arabia and Egypt.

The Governor brought long seven Oregon businessmen as part of his trade mission. Their first stop is Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. Atiyeh will stay there for eight days.

As we reported last night, the Vovernor hopes to meet later with Syrian Hafiz Assad to make a plea for peace. The Governor is the son of a Syrian father and a Lebanese mother.
